

By Her Side

Matt Monro

Lord I'm tired of living
Won't you be forgiving?
For all I ever loved has gone
Why should I carry on?

I have lost tomorrow
Must I live in sorrow?
Now yesterday is all I own
I can't live this life alone

Lord lead me through the darkness
Carry me away across the river wide
Lord lead me to the garden
And let me stand by her side

Lord there's pain inside me
Take my hand and guide me
For You alone may lead me there
My love waits there hear my prayer

Lord lead me through the darkness
Carry me away across the river wide
Lord lead me to the garden
And let me stand by her side

Lord lead me through the darkness
Carry me away across the river wide
Lord lead me to the garden
And let me stand by her side
