

One Morning in May

Matt Monro

One morning in May, don't forget Dear
That one wonderful day when we met Dear
The world over was blue clover
And hearts carefree and gay
One morning in May, oh the rapture
Tonight Darling, I pray to recapture
Just one hour, just one flower
From love's faded bouquet
Kisses that came with the flame of Springtime
Burning your name in my heart
Precious to me, like a rosary
Now that we're apart
One morning in May to remember
The love smoulders away to an ember
And dreams perish, we'll still cherish
That one, one morning in May
The world over was blue clover
And hearts carefree and gay
One hour, just one flower
From loves faded bouquet
Kisses that came with the flame of Springtime
Burning your name in my heart
They're so precious to me, like a rosary
Now that we're apart
One morning in May to remember
The love smoulders away to an ember
And dreams perish, we'll still cherish
That one, one morning in May