

Back Together

Matt Nathanson

I don't wanna be the center of it all
I don't wanna be a memory fading
I don't wanna be somebody I'm not
I just wanna be somebody amazing

I've been holding on to everything
With arms above, I'm balancing

I've been lost and I've been sinking
Broken, coming back together
I've been stalling, slipping, falling,
Nothing, darling, lasts forever
There's no way I'd trade my scars for better ones
I've been lost and I've been broken
Finally coming back together

I don't wanna be afraid of my thoughts
I don't wanna be scared of my shadow
Everybody looks for love where it's not
Everybody wants to know they matter

I've been holding on to everything
With arms above, I'm balancing

I've been lost and I've been sinking
Broken, coming back together
I've been stalling, slipping, falling,
Nothing, darling, lasts forever
There's no way I'd trade my scars for better ones
I've been lost and I've been broken
Finally coming back together

I've been holding on to everything
With arms above, I'm balancing

I've been lost and I've been sinking
Broken, coming back together
I've been stalling, slipping, falling,
Nothing, darling, lasts forever
There's no way I'd trade my scars for better ones
I've been lost and I've been broken
Finally coming back together
