

PUMPED UP

Matt OX

(You know who it is)
I think I've been thinkin' too much
These rappers ain't thinkin' enough
And you know I'm winnin', I won
Until the mission is done
Tapped into my intuition like a monk
(Punk, punk, punk)

Punk
I'm pumped up, makin' 'em jump
Lil' dumb-dumb, you don't know nothin'
My sums up, gettin' the bucks
I will turn nothin' to somethin'
You can't understand me, so don't even talk to me
You can't understand me, but this is my prophecy
No, they can't stand me 'cause I'm the prodigy
Can't understand me, speakin' philosophies

I with some zombies like an apocalypse
They cannot stop me, no, they not stoppin' it
I'ma stay lockin' it and I'ma stay poppin' it
I'ma start droppin' it
I sat back and had an epiphany
I said that now they wanna mimic me
I'm laid back and I'm feelin' heavenly
When you look back, yeah, you gon' remember me
I'm in the trap, in a place you will never be
I'm comin' back and I'm making longevity
You in the past like you're stuck in the 70s
Better not lack or get shot, J. F. Kennedy
Send me the stems and I'll turn up the melody
Flow with the beat and I'm hittin' the remedies
Expressing these energies
Collecting the check indeed
