

SOUL

Matt OX

Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

I feel the energy in my soul, it's in my DNA like a code
Went through so many things, I had to cope
I'm about to meditate with a [?]
I'm about to copyright all the clones
I see a greenlight, I'm on go
That evil life is cutthroat
I live a evil life, like a ghost
I don't even feel right, my blood cold
But I'll be alright, I won't fold
I'm in the limelight, in my zone
Out of my mind, like I'm loco
Stealing my shine, like, it's my glow
Still with the squad, on dolo
I made the way, Marco Polo
Made my own way and they follow
I'm getting cake, like a lotto
We [?], we don't drive slow
I got a million dollars worth of game, I feel like I'm [?]
Might take a million dollars out the bank, like I hit the lotto
I could do this with my eyes closed
Hop in the whip, I don't drive slow
I cannot drift out of my zone
I could do all this on my own
I am a artist, I'm not a clone
Look what I started and what I molded
Had to restart it to take control
Had to control it with no controller

Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
