Dangerous

M. Pokora

[Feat. Timbaland & Sebastian] She's got an appetit that won't stop The way that she's dancing should be against the law She likes to show off Her body act like the life for a party And make it hard for you to keep her And it's just a matter of time For it starts to play with your mind She's supersonic and her eyes are so hypnotic I used to think that she was innocent, girl. [Chorus] x2: She's got the passion That girl is dangerous Better be careful That girl is dangerous Beautiful Hard way That girl is dangerous She's dangerous, dangerous She'll do anything for a good time She'll break your back it sounds like last time She's so exotic and it's so amazing She's the perfect girl for any occasion And it's just a matter of time For she starts to play with your mind That girl is evil and her love should be illegal You'll get to close her fear all... wanna be her [Chorus] x2: She's got the passion That girl is dangerous Better be careful That girl is dangerous Beautiful hard way That girl is dangerous She's dangerous, dangerous
