Tokyo Girl

M. Pokora

Knew it when I looked at you And you looked the other way Had to make you understand I wanted you to stay

So many here tonight but I only see your face You got me open now Girl you give me something to chase

Baby set your mind free Standing right in front of me Tell me what it's gonna be

I can see you wanna dance Why don't you just take my hand

Don't be scared to let it go
Don't be scared to let it go
Don't' be scared baby let it go
You can be my Tokyo Girl
When you move across the floor
Looking so incredible
Don't be scared baby let it go
You should be my Tokyo Girl

It's such a foreign feeling In such a foreign place Red lights are everywhere And girl it's getting late

Let's go somewhere where we can Do what lovers do I know we've never met But I'm going crazy for you

Baby set your mind free Standing right in front of me Tell me what it's gonna be

I can see you wanna dance So just take my hand, girl Refrain

Oh
Thought I'm fighting my attraction
I can't help it
I need to know
If you really want it
If you're ready
Girl let's go

Oh
I can tell by your reaction
It's our time now
On the floor
If you really want it

If you're ready
Girl let's go!

[Refrain x2]

Don't be scared to let it go Don't be scared to let it go
