

Flames

Matt Redman

Let it rise, let it rise
An everlasting flame
A fire for Your name
Let it rise, let it rise
A holy offering
That's burning from within

We'll shine bright
And lift up Your name
We lift Your name high

Let all our hallelujahs be Yours
All our hallelujahs be Yours
From the altar of our hearts, O God
Let flames of worship rise

We lift You high, lift You high
An everlasting flame
A fire for Your name
We lift You high, lift You high
A holy offering
Burning from within

We'll shine bright
And lift up Your name
We lift Your name high

Let all our hallelujahs be Yours
All our hallelujahs be Yours
From the altar of our hearts, O God
Let flames of worship rise

For You a fire, for You an everlasting flame
For You a passion that burns, a passion that burns
For Your everlasting name

We'll shine bright
And lift up Your name
We lift Your name high

Let all our hallelujahs be Yours
All our hallelujahs be Yours
From the altar of our hearts, O God
Let flames of worship rise
