

Redemption Ground

Matt Redman

O, let my heart be moved
Where my soul was saved
This cross of grace
I'm carried to Calvary
By Your love for me
This holy place

On this redemption ground
I'll stand with all the saints
And trade my burdens now
For rivers of Your grace
I'll lay my hallelujah down
Where all my hope is found
And praise You for redemption ground

And so let my heart beat strong
With Salvation's song
The sound of grace
I'm carried to Calvary
Where You bled for me
This holy place

On this redemption ground
I'll stand with all the saints
And trade my burdens now
For rivers of Your grace
I'll lay my hallelujah down
Where all my hope is found
And praise You for redemption ground
I will praise You for redemption ground

Five sacred wounds, in Your hands and feet and side
One crown of thorns, and one perfect sacrifice
But tell me this, who can count the souls
Of all who have been found, here on redemption ground

On this redemption ground
I'll stand with all the saints
And trade my burdens now
For rivers of Your grace
I'll lay my hallelujah down
Where all my hope is found
And praise You for redemption ground
And will praise You for redemption ground
Jesus, redemption ground
