

Better Tomorrow

Matt Simons

Hey, I see the panic in your eyes
It's so familiar
I've been there before
In the moment it can feel
Like it might thrill ya
I've been there

So don't freak out
It's all imaginary
What goes up, comes down
It's necessary
If you lose your mind
It's temporary
Happens all the time

You'll feel better tomorrow
Even though I know you think you're gonna die
You'll feel better tomorrow
If you want me to I'll stay with you all night

Hey, so you tell me you regret
Your latest choices
I've been there before
Can't just turn around and tune out
All the voices
We've all been there

When it feels like the walls are caving in
And it feels like there's no escaping it
Oh-oh, oh-oh-oh
When it feels like the walls are caving in
You can fight it or you can roll with it
Oh-oh, oh-oh

You'll feel better tomorrow
Even though I know you think you're gonna die
You'll feel better tomorrow
If you want me to I'll stay with you all night
You'll feel better tomorrow
Even though I know there's nothing going right
You'll feel better tomorrow
If you want me to I'll stay with you all night

So don't freak out
It's all imaginary
What goes up, comes down
It's necessary
If you lose your mind
It's temporary
Happens all the time

You'll feel better tomorrow
Even though I know you think you're gonna die
(I know you think you're gonna die)
You'll feel better tomorrow
If you want me to I'll stay with you all night
(You'll feel better, you'll feel)

You'll feel better tomorrow
Even though I know there's nothing going right
(Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh)
You'll feel better tomorrow
If you want me to I'll stay with you all night
