Dust

Matt Simons

There's a part of us all that is weak
It is hard to admit what I need
So on nights that I've had two or three
I erase all the bad memories

I know you're settled down and living so far away
So I knew that when I called you, I would hear you say

Don't kick the dust up just 'cause you're lonely
And you got fucked up late at night
Don't kick the dust up just 'cause I'm happy
And I'm the one that's on your mind

Now it feels like you're still holding on
It's been so many years since I've been gone
I forgive you for what you did wrong
But the pain that you feel shouldn't last so long

You know I'm settled down and living so far away
So don't come calling 'cause you know that I will always say

Don't kick the dust up just 'cause you're lonely
And you got fucked up late at night
Don't kick the dust up just 'cause I'm happy
And I'm the one that's on your mind
Don't kick the dust up just 'cause you're lonely
And you got fucked up late at night
Don't kick the dust up just 'cause I'm happy
And I'm the one that's on your mind
