Identity Crisis

Matt Simons

(Who am I?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I without you?)

I thought I knew all the answers to what it's all about
I never once had to think about what I'd do without
The kind of loving you gave me but now you let me down
I wasn't ready to let it go but I'm over that now

I was always the easy come with the easy go
Facing the future without you well that ain't easy no
The person I am alone is somebody I don't know
I wanna be holding on to you but you let me go

Why did I do this to myself
Why did I do this to myself
Why did I do this to myself

Now I'm having an identity crisis
And you know that I don't ever get like this
The adrenaline is doing my mind in
You're my medicine but now I can't find it

So I'm having an identity crisis
And I'm doing all I can just to fight it
But my head is spinning I can't define it
I can't hide it
No I can't hide it

That I'm having an identity crisis
(Who am I?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I without you?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I without you?)

How did I go from the top of the world to underground
What do I do to get moving and say I'm better now
The hardest part is to start it up without knowing how
I can't deny it I lied when
I said I'm over that now

Why did I do this to myself
Why did I do this to myself
Why did I do this to myself

Now I'm having an identity crisis
And you know that I don't ever get like this
The adrenaline is doing my mind in
You're my medicine but now I can't find it

So I'm having an identity crisis
And I'm doing all I can just to fight it

But my head is spinning I can't define it
I can't hide it
No I can't hide it

That I'm having an identity crisis

(Who am I?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I without you?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I without you?)
(That I'm having an identity crisis)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I without you?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I?)
(Who am I without you?)
