

It's You

Matt Simons

I said darling don't cry
You'd say baby don't leave
I should probably lie
Say it's not you, it's me
But I know where you've been
Oh and I know what you did

I could say I love you but I won't
Say that I forgive you but I don't
I should tell you what's true
You know it takes two to fall in love
It only took you to fuck it up
Oh yeah that's just what you do
And now that we're through
Well I can say it's not me, it's you

I've been trying to find
Any love that we had
I've been wrecking my mind yeah
Oh I've been feeling so bad
Well I'm leaving tonight

I could say I love you but I won't
Say that I forgive you but I don't
I should tell you what's true
You know it takes two to fall in love
It only took you to fuck it up
Oh yeah that's just what you do
And now that we're through
Well I can say it's not me, it's you

Don't give me your excuses, just save your breath
You've made your choice to do this to me instead
Oh and someone's gotta lose
Well it's not me, it's you oh

I could say I love you but I won't
Say that I forgive you but I don't
I should tell you what's true
You know it takes two to fall in love
It only took you to fuck it up
Oh yeah that's just what you do
And now that we're through
Well I can say it's not me

Well it's not me oh no

Well I can say it's not me, it's you oh oh oh
