What I'm Looking For

Matt Simons

Well my heart's been pumping
I've been meaning to say something
I can't get of my chest

Yeah, I know I've been bit
I ain't to proud to admit
That I can't get no rest

I've been living beneath the surface
Feeling every kind of worthless
Now it's time that it ends

And there ain't no way
That I would ever be okay
With being just friends

So baby, be good to me
(Baby, Be good to me)
Let me know you're here to stay
Baby, be good to me
(Baby, Be good to me)
That you won't ever run away
So be good to me, lover
All we've got is eachother
And I don't need much more
Yeah, I'm glad that I've said it
Now I know I won't regret it
You are what I'm looking for
Yeah, you're what I'm looking for

I've been all around the world
And I meet a lot of girls
Now I can't understand

No, It's still unclear
How you've got me standing here
With my heart in my hand

Yeah, I did a lot of swimming
And I meet a lot of women
And they just don't seem to s...

There's no time to delay and
There's no other way to say it
Girl you've got what I like

So baby, be good to me
(Baby, Be good to me)
Let me know your search is done
Baby, be good to me
(Baby, Be good to me)
Tell me I'm the only one
So be good to me, lover
All we've got is eachother
Yeah, I'm glad that I've said it
Now I know I won't regret it

You are what I'm looking for

Keep on looking down the line
We can leave the past behind
Keep on looking down the line
Oh, and there's nothing left to do
To fall more in love with you

So baby, be good to me
Baby, be good to me
That you won't ever run away
So baby, be good to me
(Baby, Be good to me)
Oh, let me know your search is done
Baby, be good to me
(Baby, Be good to me)
Tell me I'm the only one
So be good to me, lover
Yeah, I'm glad that I've said it
Now I know I won't regret it
You are what I'm looking for
