

Ain't Too Good

Matt Stell

It's not all my business
But I can't stand it anymore
He acts like loving you's a chore
Like your love's a burden
He's made to look around
And he can't wait to let you down

I ain't too good to say, "I love you"
I ain't too good to hold your hand
Well, I ain't too good to show the world
Exactly where I stand

I should have to hide my pride
I would if I could
But I ain't too good
No, I ain't too good

I don't mean to make trouble
I'm not trying to cause a scene
But my heart's bursting at the seams

And I ain't too good to say, "I love you"
I ain't too good to hold your hand
Well, I ain't too good to show the world
Exactly where I stand

I should have to hide my pride
I would if I could
But I ain't too good
No, I ain't too good

I think I have better go
I just wanted you to know

I ain't too good to say, "I love you"
I ain't too good to hold your hand
Well, I ain't too good to show the world
Exactly where I stand

I should have to hide my pride
I would if I could
But I ain't too good
No, I ain't too good