

Better Than That

Matt Stell

You're at a booth in the corner, over my shoulder, I saw you when you first walked in
I might have said "Hi" if that one-night type hadn't started circlin'
He's in an Auburn cap but you got crimson on He's talking way too loud, tryin' to make you laugh
Comin' on way too strong, it's all wrong

You ain't a shot of Jäger from a stranger at a dive bar
His hands all on your body on the dance floor
Try'n first kiss you up against the wall
I know you better than that
It ain't the move, ain't whatyou do
He don't know the first thing about you
I know you better than that
Yeah, I know you better than that

You're a Tanqueray in tonic, when your song comes on it
Makes you wanna sing along
You're a talk all night and if you play your cards right
A text when you get back home

You ain't a shot of Jäger from a stranger at a dive bar
His hands all on your body on the dance floor
Try'n first kiss you up against the wall
I know you better than that
It ain't the move, ain't what you do
He don't know the first thing about you
I know you better than that
Yeah, I know you better than that

Girl, I just wanna talk and try to get you back
But I know you better than that

You ain't a shot of Jäger from a stranger at a dive bar
His hands all on your body on the dance floor
Try'n first kiss you up against the wall
I know you better than that
It ain't the move, ain't what you do
He don't know the first thing about you
I know you better than that
Yeah, I know you better than that

You ain't a shot of Jäger from a stranger at a dive bar
I know you better than that
His hands all on your body on the dance floor
I know you better than that
It ain't the move, ain't what you do
He don't know the first thing about you
I know you better than that
Yeah, I know you better than that Baby, I know you better than that I know you better, I know you better than that
