

Look At Me Now

Matt Stell

I was a wide open Hemi on the highway
I was a long-gone hell raiser on Friday's
Yeah, everything I did, I did it my way
I'd say nothing's gonna ever change me

Look at me now, lookin' at you
Just like everyone else in the room
Look at me now, tears in my eyes
Even though I swore that I wouldn't cry
I lost it the second I saw you in that dress
And your daddy was walkin' you down
Thought I'd never do this
But look at me now

Still don't know what I'm doing honestly
All I know is I'ma love you girl with all of me
And I promise you that, baby, can you promise me
That I'll spend my days waking up to the way

Look at me now, lookin' at you
Just like everyone else in the room
Look at me now, tears in my eyes
Even though I swore that I wouldn't cry
I lost it the second I saw you in that dress
And your daddy was walkin' you down
Thought I'd never do this
But look at me now

Look at me now, lookin' at you
Just like everyone else in the room
Look at me now, tears in my eyes
Even though I swore that I wouldn't cry
I lost it the second I saw you in that dress
And your daddy was walkin' you down
Thought I'd never do this
Thought I'd never do this
But look at me now
Ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh
Look at me now
