

Sadie

Matt Stell

When you're young you're made of mistakes
You throw your heart and you watch it break
And it doesn't take long to lose a little faith in love

Or can we take it back to your mom and dad's
We were happy kids but the songs were sad
And it didn't take long for you to believe in us

Oh, we both said stuff we didn't mean to say
Woke up pissed off, shouting the pain away
I hope that you're listenin'

Sadie, I know that you've been hurtin' lately
But you know that I got you, girl
I'd start a riot for you
I'd fall in the fire for you, Sadie

Tell your boyfriend I'm your best friend
I don't care if he's got a problem
I ain't goin' nowhere 'cause I know you better than him

Oh, we both said stuff we didn't mean to say
Woke up pissed off, shouting the pain away
I hope that you're listenin'

Sadie, I know that you've been hurtin' lately
But you know that I got you, girl
I'd start a riot for you
I'd fall in the fire for you, Sadie
If you need to keep keep me waiting
Just do what you got to, girl
I'd start a riot for you
I'd fall in the fire for you

Sadie, you can wait, you can wait on me
Sadie put your faith, put your faith on me
You ain't gotta change, gotta change a thing
Sadie, you can wait, you can wait on me
Sadie, put your faith, put your faith on me
You ain't gotta change, gotta change a thing

Sadie, I know that you've been hurtin' lately
But you know that I got you, girl
I'd start a riot for you
I'd fall in the fire for you, Sadie
If you need to keep keep me waiting
Just do what you got to, girl
I'd start a riot for you
I'd fall in the fire for you, Sadie
I know that you've been hurtin' lately
But you know that I got you, girl
