

That Ain't Me No More

Matt Stell

I used to drink till I got drunk
My fuse was short, my guard was up
I'd start a fight, I'd slam a door
But that ain't me no more

Yeah, I was number one on my list
I never called back the calls I missed
No I ain't proud of who I was before
But that ain't me no more

Yeah, I've turned it all around
But she's over the moon right now 'cause

Somebody's got her in their shirt
Somebody's textin' her at work
Somebody's got a picture on their dash
Somebody's goin' fishin' with her dad
She's lettin' some lucky someone see
That knock-you-dead dress hit the floor
She found the one and it's killin' me
'Cause that ain't me no more, yeah
No, that ain't me no more

Yeah, she's tellin' everybody that she's in
A better place than she's ever been
There's a name she thanks the good Lord for
But that ain't me no more

Somebody's got her in their shirt
Somebody's textin' her at work
Somebody's got a picture on their dash
Somebody's goin' fishin' with her dad
She's lettin' some lucky someone see
That knock-you-dead dress hit the floor
She found the one and it's killin' me
'Cause that ain't me no more

I gotta good hold on me
She's gotta good hold on him
Never felt more bittersweet
'Cause I'm doin' as good and as bad as I've ever been
As good and as bad as I've ever been, whoa

Somebody's got her in their shirt
Somebody's textin' her at work
Somebody's got a picture on their dash
Somebody's drinkin' whiskey with her dad
She's lettin' some lucky someone see
That knock-you-dead dress hit the floor
She found the one and it's killin' me
'Cause that ain't me no more, yeah
No, that ain't me no more
No, that ain't me no more
