

Got You

Matt Terry

You shoot to kill
And heart of steel
I can't get away, no no
Honestly
There's no one else but me to blame

And I try my best to cut you out
Tell myself that I don't need you now

But it doesn't make sense
If I don't got you under my skin and messing with my brain
If I don't got you pulling my strings and taking hold of me
If I don't got you (but it doesn't make sense)
If I don't got you

You got me trapped (oh)
Ain't no way back to who I used to be, no no
Call off the search
There's no one else but me to blame

And I've tried my best to cut you out
But it's clear to see I'm all yours now

But it doesn't make sense
If I don't got you under my skin and messing with my brain
If I don't got you pulling my strings and taking hold of me
If I don't got you (but it doesn't make sense)
If I don't got you

I surrender
Ain't nothing else I can do
I surrender
Tell me what you wanna do
Don't remember
Me before you
I surrender
Ain't nothing else I can do

But it doesn't make sense
If I don't got you under my skin and messing with my brain
If I don't got you pulling my strings and taking hold of me
If I don't got you under my skin and messing with my brain
If I don't got you pulling my strings and taking hold of me
If I don't got you (but it doesn't make sense)
If I don't got you (but it doesn't make sense)
If I don't got you (but it doesn't make sense)
If I don't got you (if I don't got you)
