

Sober

Matt Terry

Let the drink flow
I ain't gotta worry bout us
Cuz now we're solo
You can find me in the club
I wasn't trying to stay down like that
Fucked me up yeah, but I bounced back
On Dom Perignon till I'm out like black

Got the whole team by my side
Checking me like I'm not right
Keep on telling me "let that shit slide"
Better keep it flowing all night (all night)

No I'm not staying sober
Cuz I'm still getting over
Losing you, losing you you you
No I'm not staying sober
Cuz I'm still getting over
Losing you, losing you you you

I can't let go
Gotta get you off my mind
So I get wild
But every girl in here's so average
Craving you like it's a habit
Still got your perfume on my jacket
Makes it harder to forget

Got the whole team by my side
Checking me like I'm not right
Keep on telling me "let that shit slide"
Guess I'll keep it flowing all night

No I'm not staying sober
Cuz I'm still getting over
Losing you, losing you you you
No I'm not staying sober
Cuz I'm still getting over
Losing you, losing you you you

I don't wanna think, I don't wanna think, no
I don't wanna think, I don't wanna think, no, no
I don't wanna think, I don't wanna think, no
I don't wanna think, I don't wanna think, no, no

No I'm not staying sober
Cuz I'm still getting over
Losing you, losing you you you
No I'm not staying sober
Cuz I'm still getting over
Losing you, losing you you you
