

Everything Will Be Alright

Matt Wertz

There's no need to worry, maybe
We could leave it behind
Most of my troubles are self-created
They just live in my mind

Chorus: (2x)
Why do we try
When it always ends up fine
Everything will be alright

I'm tired of spending my days here thinkin'
Getting lost in my head
Oh no, but the sun is shining right outside so why don't we spend some time there instead?

Repeat Chorus
