

Hurry

Matt Wertz

Everybody's racing like they're running out of time
Pinging like a pinball off whatever's on their mind
All the while they overlook what's in front of their eyes
I'm gonna be fine, crawling my way through life

'Cause I'm in no hurry
I'm in no hurry
I've been moving slowly
Good things always take their time

I may be going nowhere but at least I'll get there slow
If it's not worth putting off, it's not worth doing it at all
You can keep your progress, your assets, keep your-on-the-go
'Cause drawing it out, soaking it up, turning it down's the only way I know

'Cause I'm in no hurry
I'm in no hurry
I've been moving slowly, yeah
Good things always take their time

Are we too afraid of missing out?
Are we too afraid to change? Oh yeah
Isn't living it what's life's about?
I'll be on my way
Eventually, 'cause

I'm in no hurry
I'm in no hurry
I've been moving slowly, yeah, yeah
Good things always take their time
I'm in no hurry, hurry
Taking the long way home
'Cause people move fast, then they get worried
I'm in no hurry

People move fast, then they get worried
So I'm in no hurry
I'm in no hurry
