

Wake Up, Wake Up

Matt Wertz

I don't think I slept a single wink last night
Dreaming even though I was awake
I heard reindeer on the roof
And the sound of you know who
Pulling presents down from on his sleigh

It's time I tiptoed down the steps and sneaked a peek
I've been waiting for this day all year
There's every stocking stuffed
There's only cookie crumbs
Ain't no doubt about it, he's been here

Wake up! Wake up! You know that it's Christmas morning
Come on, jump on out of bed
Wake up! Wake up! You know that it's Christmas morning
Get up get up, you sleepyhead

Dad, I went ahead and got your camera out
And momma don't you worry 'bout your hair
'Cause I can't take it anymore
What are we waiting for?
There's a pile of presents waiting just downstairs

Wake up! Wake up! You know that it's Christmas morning
Come on, jump on out of bed
Wake up! Wake up! You know that it's Christmas morning
Get up get up, you sleepyhead

And the light outside the window is the moon
Don't you know that we can sleep all afternoon?

Wake up! Wake up! You know that it's Christmas morning
Come on, jump on out of bed
Wake up! Wake up! You know that it's Christmas morning
Get up get up, you sleepyhead
Get up get up get outta bed
