

Anyone Else

Matt White

We used to talk about nothing,
Everyday after school.
You could, try tonight,
The mutual attraction,
And tell u I am a fool.
And if you're feeling lonely,
Only one call away.
You could try, but I,
Need some more affection.
And what else can I say.

Oh baby why can't u see your making such a fool of me,
And I don't want u lovin' anybody else.
Oh baby why can't u see I'd wear my heart out on my sleeve,
And I don't want u lovin' anybody else

I couldn't say you're my girlfriend,
Did he mean to play with you hair?
I will try, to find,
Something else to tell you,
Something to tell I'm your friend
And now I'm feeling so stupid
Lonely days by myself

I wont compete, to see,
That this is all this nonsense
Oh how love sick I can be,

Oh baby why can't u see your making such a fool of me,
And I don't want u lovin' anybody else.
Oh baby why can't u see I'd wear my heart out on my sleeve,
And I don't want u lovin' anybody else.

Oh baby why can't u see your making such a fool of me,
And I don't want u lovin' anybody else.
Oh baby why can't u see I'd wear my heart out on my sleeve,
And I don't want u lovin' anybody else.

I just don't want u lovin' anybody else.
I just don't want u lovin' anybody else.
I just don't want u lovin' anybody else.
Oh baby, shoob shoob shoob shoob shoob
