I know what you're thinking. Times are always fleeting. Tell you that I love you. I know that I was thinking. I know I should try harder, oh, yeah. Now baby don't you worry. Everytime I want you I'll be the man you're needing

And I'm always tryin to tell you that I'm not gonna change. And the world is on my shoulders and it doesn't feel the same. If I tell you that I need you every hour, every day, it wouldn't ease your worrying, it wouldn't make you want to stay

I can't imagine. I never wanna be that. And baby stop the fleetin. Who is it that I'm leaving?

And I'm always tryin to tell you that I'm not gonna change. And the world is on my shoulders and it doesn't feel the same. If I tell you that I need you every hour, every day, it wouldn't ease your worrying, it wouldn't make you want to stay

I can't imagine. And the water feels nothing. I never wanna lose it, no. Who is it that I'm leaving?
