

Sometimes

Matt White

You wanna tell me things, ah
I wanna hear what you need
And all your inhibitions
Carries your weight in me

I can't love any more than this
We're trying hard to survive
And it makes me wonder why
That you only hurt at night

Sometimes
Sometimes

You wanna see your dad again
Dressed up in his finest clothes
With no more cancer
Eating up his soul

I can't love any more than this
We're trying hard to survive
And it makes me wonder why
That you only hurt at night

Sometimes
Sometimes
Sometimes
Oh, sometimes

Can't read what you're looking for
And you won't talk no more

Sometimes
Sometimes
Sometimes
Oh, sometimes
