

History

Matthew Mayfield

Never thought it would end up this way
Never thought it be true
I've always known that love is gambling
Just never thought I could loose on you

And how do I move now that you've moved on?
And how do I fight now that you're long gone?
And how I dream now that you don't believe?
Say goodbye, we're history
Yhea we're history

All the reasons I have faith in you
All the meaning behind
Every season that I spent with you
I never thought that you would cross the line

And how do you feel when you walk into the door?
And how do you look in the mirror anymore?
And how do you toss the idea of you and me?
Say goodbye, we're history
Yhea we're history

Mhmm...
