

The Wolf in Your Darkest Room

Matthew Mayfield

I am the reason,
the reason for you.
You can only breathe because I let you...

Come to your senses,
wake from your dream.
I am the wolf in your darkest room...

And I just want to taste you on my teeth,
I'm clawing at your neck to feed my needs.
You thought you found my limit
but you don't seem to know,
no you don't seem to know,
how far I'd go...

I am your future,
I am your past,
I am the secret out at last...

I'm sticking to your walls just like the smoke...
Now it's all eyes on you,
as you choke...

You thought you found my limit
but you don't seem to know,
no you don't seem to know...
how far I'd go...
