

Why We Try

Matthew Mayfield

I just want you here with me
Breathing the air you breathe
Whisper the words you know
I'll never let you go
I won't let you go. no
So won't you
Don't you know I always try to
Can't you see it in my eyes
All the reasons you are mine
Maybe that's why we try
Maybe that's why we fight
Maybe that's why we give it all to keep this love alive
Maybe that's why we try
I just want you here with me
Silence and kisses sweet
Say I'm the only one
There's nothing running we're running from
No I won't let you go
Won't you
Don't you know I always try to
Can't you see it in my eyes
All the reasons you are mine
Maybe that's why we try
Maybe that's why we fight
Maybe that's why we give it all to keep this love alive
Maybe you're all that I need
Even when you're holding me
Everything you and I have got it takes so long to find
Maybe that's why we try
oh oh oh
oh oh oh
oh oh oh
Won't you
Don't you know I always try to
Can't you see it in my eyes
All the reasons you are mine
Maybe that's why we try
Maybe that's why we fight
Maybe that's why we give it all to keep this love alive
Maybe you're all that i need
I feel it when you're holding me
Everything you and I have got it takes so long to find
Everything you and I have got it takes so long to find
Everything you and I have got it takes so long to find
Maybe that's why we try
