

Inside Out

Matthew Mole

Something's waking in my heart
It's something that I never felt before
I'm not the same
All I ever do is run
But, all I wanna feel right now is in Your heart

I'm uncomfortable when You're not around
I'm just waiting for the world to pull me down
But, I'll find You now and from the inside out
I will give it all and give it all I've got

I wanna find the secret place
I wanna give it all away and feel Your voice
In time, I could never take this on
But, all the strength that I've acquired is from Your heart

I'm uncomfortable when You're not around
I'm just waiting for the world to pull me down
But, I'll find You now and from the inside out
I will give it all and give it all I've got

I won't back down, won't run away
You'll do Your part, I'll do the same
And I won't back down, won't run away
I won't back down, won't run away
You'll do Your part, I'll do the same
And I won't back down, won't run away

I'm uncomfortable when You're not around
I'm just waiting for the world to pull me down
But, I'll find You now and from the inside out
I will give it all and give it all I've got, oh-oh
