Light

Matthew Mole

I know why the way I am and the way I think I want to be
Isn't right
I hear you speak, but only listen selfishly
And I think I'm right
But all I do is circle curiosity
And I hear the lies
But if I'd listen openly, you'd set them free

Heal my broken heart
Heal my broken heart
I'm falling away and I'm falling away
But I'm looking up into the light
Heal my broken heart

I open my eyes
I hear your voice
I see your face
I feel your love
And I confide
The power in your promise
I will take hold of

Heal my broken heart
Heal my broken heart
I'm falling away and I'm falling away
But I'm looking up into the light
Heal my broken heart

I'm running away but I want to
Be never afraid and hold on to
Whatever you say 'cause I'm falling down

Heal my broken heart
Heal my broken heart
I'm falling away and I'm falling away
But I'm looking up into the light
Heal my broken heart
