

Okay

Matthew Mole

I know you get a little crazy
I know you get a little tired
Because you've been through a little lately
Would you let me know
If you need somebody tonight

I want to be there in the chaos
When you believe another lie
I want to show you what you're made of
If you only knew what I think of you

And I love it that you want to be there falling apart
But you're tougher than you think
You need to know that you are
Alive alive alive
Surprise surprise surprise

You'll be okay
I can tell by the look in your eyes
You'll be okay
The sun's already started to rise
I want to see you happy in the morning
You're gonna see it happen in a moment
Okay
Surprise surprise surprise

I want to be the one to save you
I'll take anyone in a fight
I want to be there in your breakthrough
Because I know your heart

I love it that you want to be there falling apart
But you're tougher than you think
You need to know that you are
Alive alive alive
Surprise surprise surprise

You'll be okay
I can tell by the look in your eyes
You'll be okay
The sun's already started to rise
And I want to see you happy in the morning
You're gonna see it happen in a moment
Okay
Surprise surprise surprise
Surprise surprise surprise

When the sun comes out
Let my love abound
I don't want this story to end

I need you now
Not a single doubt
I don't want this story to end

You'll be okay

You'll be okay
I can tell by the look in your eyes
You'll be okay
The sun's already started to rise
And I want to see you happy in the morning
I want to see you happy in the morning
I want to see you happy in the morning
I want to see you happy in the morning
