

We, In You, Confide

Matthew Mole

I have seen that there's a time and place for you and me and all the space
Close your eyes and concentrate and fear the one who loves the world you hate

You are climbing to the top of the world, only to see your pride
Slow your eager self and find, he will celebrate your humble kind

We will search and find
Don't just waste your time
We are coming home
Sooner than we know
We, in you confide
With an even side
Of what we used to know
We are coming home

We will search and find
Don't just waste your time
We are coming home
Sooner than we know
We, in you confide
With an even side
Of what we used to know
We are coming home
