

The Pirates Of Kensington

Matthew Morrison

Ahoy, me hearties!
Look, there's a ship we could steal

Let's sneak up and climb aboard
If there's a fight, show no mercy
He will answer to the sword

We'll raise our flag and be gone

Before he knows what's going on

We will be feared by everyone
The pirates of Kensington

Please, can you move, 'cause we're playing a game
And clearly, you're in the way
We need this bench in the park so walk the plank
If you're not with us, then you're one of them
So hands up, prepare to surrender
You should know that we're the pirates of Kensington

We're going to stay 'til the sun goes away
It's just like you always say
We shouldn't be inside on such a beautiful day
A shame to waste the sun
Go out and have some fun
In the park in Kensington on such a beautiful day
