Matthew Parker

I didn't know there was anything
So amazing and awesome like you are
My two eyes were too blind to see
All the glory in front of me
That you are
But somehow you turned down the lights
You opened my eyes
Now everything I used to chase after
Becomes nothing compared to you
And I wanna go deeper
Deeper
And I wanna go deeper

I didn't know there was anything
So amazing and awesome like you are
I didn't know there was anything
So amazing and awesome like you are
My two eyes were too blind to see
All the glory in front of me
That you are
But somehow you turned down the lights
You opened my eyes
Now everything I used to chase after
Becomes nothing compared to you
And I wanna go deeper
Deeper
Deeper
And I wanna go deeper
