

Existential

Matthew Parker

Awake in a state of being
Awake in a frame of mind
Like you're a wonder-filled adventurer tryna find
Somethin' to back your theories
A nice hill for dyin' on
Turns out there's levels to the mental ride you're on

Shift the paradigm
Accept the paradoxes
Freeze your beliefs in time
And pack your thoughts in boxes
Think and philosophize
Dream on and always wonder why
Why you are alive

You're so existential, so scared to death
You've never met your full potential
That you'll never plumb the depths
Or find out somethin' special
You can't stop wandering (Aimlessly)
And wondering (If you'll ever be)
Anything but existential

Decode all the clues and ciphers
Where death and danger collide
Like you're a foolhardy adventurer tryna find
Somethin' to break your theories
A new fault to prove you wrong
Turns out there's nothin' in the madness all along

Shift the paradigm
Accept the paradoxes
Delve into space and time
And pack your thoughts in boxes
Think and philosophize
Dream on and always wonder why
Why you are alive

You're so existential, so scared to death
You've never met your full potential
That you'll never plumb the depths
Or find out somethin' special
You can't stop wandering (Aimlessly)
And wondering (If you'll ever be)
Anything but existential
