

Falling Faster

Matthew Parker

I miss your face and I miss your laugh
Tried to deny that I'm falling in love
Gravity pulls me and there's no escaping
I need you to save me

Cause I'm falling faster now
Emotions got me phasing through the ground
Afraid that I'll be falling evermore
You pulled me in and now I know it's all your fault
So catch me as I fall
Catch me as I fall

Catch me as I fall
Oh, oh, oh

I feel the rush plunging into the dark
Burning alive like a shooting star
You pulled the earth out from under my feet
Now I need you to save me

Cause I'm falling faster now
Emotions got me phasing through the ground
Afraid that I'll be falling evermore
You pulled me in and now I know it's all your fault
So catch me as I fall
Catch me as I fall

Catch me as I fall
Oh, oh, oh

Falling, falling, falling into oblivion
I'm falling, falling, I'm falling at the speed of sound
Cause only you can save me now
Save me now

Falling faster now
Emotions got me phasing through the ground
Afraid that I'll be falling evermore
You pulled me in and now I know it's all your fault
So catch me as I fall
Catch me as I fall

Catch me as I fall
I miss your face and I miss your laugh
(Catch me as I fall)
Tried to deny that I'm falling in love
(Catch me as I fall)
Gravity pulls me and there's no escaping
(Catch me as I fall)
I need you to save me
