

Hideaway

Matthew Parker

(He doesn't think you're a real boat)

Shadows
I wanna run away
But echoes
Of everything you say
Channel
Life into my veins
You tell me that I'll be okay

When the sky falls
And the fall fades
Like a castaway
I need a hideaway
I need a hideaway
(Got me thinking)

I don't wanna wake up without you
All my dreams are nightmares without you
I can hear your song in the silence
Won't you be my calm in the violence
When the sky is falling to pieces
You're right there to keep out the demons
You're my solace in a world of vices
You're my hideaway in a crisis

Lucid
We travel through my dreams
You said
This isn't what it seems
Music
Coming from the leaves
I don't wanna go back to the real world

When the sky falls
And the fall fades
Like a castaway
I need a hideaway
I need a hideaway
(Got me thinking)

I don't wanna wake up without you
All my dreams are nightmares without you
I can hear your song in the silence
Won't you be my calm in the violence
When the sky is falling to pieces
You're right there to keep out the demons
You're my solace in a world of vices
You're my hideaway in a crisis

I don't wanna wake up without you
All my dreams are nightmares without you
You're my solace in a world of vices
You're my hideaway in a crisis
When the sky is falling to pieces
You're right there to keep out the demons
You're my solace in a world of vices

You're my hideaway in a crisis
