(LOL)

You say what a bummer, I say "c'est la vie"
She told me it's over, I said "rest in peace"
Vibing under five layers of irony
Surely then the dread will never find me (Right?)

But some things never change, and to speak honestly
I hate the peppermint taste of cold reality
So I'll be tongue in cheek, throwing quips on the breeze
Tell me what I see in your eyes

Do you take me seriously?
'Cause I keep joking furiously
Maybe I'm just trying to cope with being at the end of all my r opes
I built these walls and I live mysteriously

Da-da-dada-da-da-da, da-da-dada-da, da-da-da

I'll jump right to the punchline like a trampoline
I can dodge the issue like a submarine
Swimming under (Six) layers of irony
Surely then the dread will never find me (Right? Huh)

But some things never change, and to speak honestly
I hate the peppermint taste of cold reality
So I'll be tongue in cheek, throwing quips on the breeze
Tell me what I see in your eyes

Do you take me seriously?
'Cause I keep joking furiously
Maybe I'm just trying to cope with being at the end of all my r opes
I built these walls and I live ironically

(I'm just trying to cope with being at the end of all my ropes, I built these-)

Do you take me seriously?
'Cause I keep joking furiously
Maybe I'm just trying to cope with being at the end of all my r opes
I built these walls and I live lonely
