

Sailboat

Matthew Parker

Sun is shining
Ocean horizon
But she don't see it
There's something on her mind and
She comes down here
When she needs to be
Alone, oh no no no
She been feeling the weight of the world
She been feeling like a lonely girl
Cause she been cheated
She been lied to
She opens her eyes and
Sees the horizon and says

Sailboat
Take me somewhere that I wanna go
I wanna go
Sailboat
Take me where I never been before
Don't care no more
Cause I'm so done
Fighting these monsters
Fighting to be free from this spell that I'm under
Sailboat
Take me somewhere that I wanna go
I wanna go, oh

Waves are crashing
Seagulls laughing
But she's in no mind
No mind for relaxing
Neurons racing
She gotta face it all
Alone, oh no no no
She been feeling the weight of the world
She been feeling like a lonely girl
Her dreams are broken
Heart is frozen
She opens her eyes and
Sees the horizon and says

Sailboat
Take me somewhere that I wanna go
I wanna go
Sailboat
Take me where I never been before
Don't care no more
Cause I'm so done
Fighting these monsters
Sailboat
Take me somewhere that I wanna go
I wanna go, oh

Gotta get away
I gotta get away
Gotta get away

I gotta get away

Sailboat

Take me somewhere that I wanna go

I wanna go

Sailboat

Take me where I never been before

Don't care no more

Woah...

Sailboat

Take me somewhere that I wanna go

I wanna go

Sailboat

Take me where I never been before

Don't care no more

Cause I'm so done

Fighting these monsters

Fighting to be free from this spell that I'm under

Sailboat

Take me somewhere that I wanna go

I wanna go, oh

Sailboat

Take me somewhere that I wanna go

I wanna go

Sailboat

Take me where I never been before

Don't care no more
