

Wherever You Are

Matthew Parker

Wherever you are

Oh oh
You may be lost on the low road
Took a wrong turn
And you've no idea
Where you should go from here
You hate this fear
That haunts your heart
Wherever you are

And you know
You shouldn't hold it in
Just open wide and call to him
And he will find you
He will find you
He will find you
Wherever you are
Mmm oh oh wherever you are
Uh oh oh oh mmmmm

You are loved
And he will find you
Wherever you are
You are loved
And he will find you
Where you've run
His love outshines the stars
No matter just how far
You've run
Wherever you are

Oh oh
You think you're far enough this time
Never to find yourself in his love again
The rain pours in inside your heart
Wherever you are

Oh oh
You hear a doubt whisper softly
Can there be hope left
For prodigals like me
But don't let those dark doubts blind you
Cause he will find you
Wherever you are
Wherever you are
Uh oh oh oh uh oh oh oh
Wherever you are
Uh oh oh oh uh oh oh oh

You are loved
And he will find you
Where you've run
No matter just how far
You've run
Wherever you are

You are loved
And he will find you
Where you've run
No matter just how far
You've run
Wherever you are
Wherever you are
Wherever you are
Uh oh oh oh yeah

You are loved
And he will find you
Where you've run
No matter just how far
You've run
Wherever you are
