

Wildflower

Matthew Parker

You came out of nowhere
I was looking for someone but didn't know I would find you
Lost myself in two eyes of bright blue
Bright blue
You make it so easy
I smile every time we're together until my face hurts
Sparks flew between us at the fireworks
The fireworks

What did I do to deserve this?
(Nothing at all, nothing at all)
You are my favorite plot twist

You're a wildflower
You're a daisy
Looking in your eyes got me spacey
Still can't believe you're my baby
The wildflower God gave me
You're a wildflower
You're a daisy
You can keep me sane or drive me crazy
My love is yours for the taking
The wildflower God gave me

It's just like a daydream
We watched the sunset on the ocean with no sunscreen
Red-faced, and sitting on a dead tree
So lovely
We don't care if people stare
We're weird but we're fine, I swear
Adventuring everywhere
You're a wild one, baby
And you're beautiful (beautiful), yeah

What did I do to deserve this?
(Nothing at all, nothing at all)
You are my favorite plot twist
