A Song for Canaan

Matthew Perryman Jones

Inside the night Across the holy river When you arrived A promise was delivered I waited for you Dreaming away all the while How I adore you My lovely little child For you I'll fight I'd face a thousand armies I'll hold the light And nothing can disarm me I waited for you Dreaming away all the while How I adore you My lovely little child