

Bittersweet

Matthew Sweet

Red light, red light, red light, my
Yellow light, yellow
Green light, green light, green light, my
They're all on time

And I can see the signs but they don't make sense
This way, that way, everyday fear
Always whisperin' in my ear
You won't get back, you won't be fine
Hey, motherfucker, there just isn't time

And I can see the signs but they don't make sense
And I don't wanna watch (The more I see)
'Cause I knew it all along
No, I don't wanna see (Don't wanna watch)
But I'll do it for you, do it for you

Six times, seven times eight times, nine
All the time the number grows in my mind
Ten times, twelve times, twenty-four
Where is the door?

And I can see the signs but they don't make sense
And I don't wanna watch (The more I see)
'Cause I knew it all along
No, I don't wanna see (Don't wanna watch)
But I'll do it for you, do it for you
Don't wanna watch (Don't wanna see)
But I'll do it for you, do it for you

And I can see the signs but they don't make sense
And I don't wanna watch (The more I see)
'Cause I knew it all along
No, I don't wanna see (Don't wanna watch)
But I'll do it for you, do it for you

Don't wanna watch (Don't wanna see)
'Cause I knew it all along
No, I don't wanna see (Don't wanna watch)
But I'll do it for you, do it for you
I'll do it for you, I'll do it for you
