

Evergreen

Matthew Sweet

As soon as I found you, baby, you know
They took you away
You put your little hands together and

You started to pray
All your prayers, they brought no answer
Your faith was a lie

There's no difference
Between the earth and the sky
There's no reason, we have to die

Whenever you talk that way you know
You're breaking my heart
How can we ever come together when

We're playing these parts
In every love there is a promise
So, baby, don't you cry

'Cause there's no difference
Between the earth and the sky
There's no reason, we have to die

Every love there is a promise
So, baby, don't you cry

There's no difference
Between the earth and the sky
There's no reason, we have to die
