

Sleeping

Matthew Sweet

I can feel you in my heart
In my soul, I don't mind
I hope you're waking in a dream
Not aware what it means

But there's a feeling I can't fight
Like this life isn't right
And I can see me

I think I remembered somewhere in the sideways
I know I don't mind, it's like you're sleeping
In my heart, in my soul
So tell me what I have to do
How am I gonna get to you?

When you are waking it just sends
Any new evidence
I thought I saw you, saw you

And then I remembered somewhere in the sideways
I know I don't mind, it's like you're sleeping
In my heart, in my soul
So tell me what I have to do, how I'm gonna get to you?
