

Breakthrough's Coming

Matthew West

When has He ever failed me, not once
When have I ever seen Him let me down
And is there any battle He can't overcome
And is there any mountain He can't move right now

I believe that my breakthrough's coming
I believe that my God's not done and
I believe there's nothing He can't do (oh oh oh oh)
I believe there's a way He's making
Come what may I will not be shaken
On my knees I'll stand upon this truth
My breakthrough's coming

I know He's always faithful, always kind
No matter what my circumstances say
And with a story full of miracles behind
Oh I know my miracle is on the way (yeah)

I believe that my breakthrough's coming
I believe that my God's not done and
I believe there's nothing He can't do (oh oh oh oh)
I believe there's a way He's making
Come what may I will not be shaken
On my knees I'll stand upon this truth
My breakthrough's coming

I will see the walls falling
I will see the waves parted
He's just getting started
Breakthrough's coming, breakthrough's coming
I will see the doors open
I will see the stone rolling
Oh I know that I know it
Breakthrough's coming, breakthrough's coming

I will see the walls falling
I will see the waves parted
He's just getting started
Breakthrough's coming, breakthrough's coming
I will see the doors open
I will see the stone rolling
Oh I know that I know it
Breakthrough's coming, breakthrough's coming

I believe that my breakthrough's coming
I believe that my God's not done and
I believe there's nothing He can't do (oh oh oh oh)
(Nothing He can not do)
I believe there's a way He's making
Come what may I will not be shaken
(I will not be shaken)
On my knees I'll stand upon this truth
My breakthrough's coming
It's coming

I believe my breakthrough's coming
It's coming

My breakthrough's coming
