

Imperfections

Matthew West

All of my life I've been making a list
Of all the things about me I'd change if I could
And the longer I live, the more I'm convinced
The bad and the ugly will outweigh the good

I beat myself up
I tear myself down
And it's never been harder to understand how

You perfectly love me and all my imperfections
Still can't believe that it's true
How You perfectly love me and all my imperfections
And all my imperfections You'll use

I'm clumsy and foolish, I'm reckless and clueless
If there's a wrong turn, I'll take it
But You keep on raising me up from my ruins
And tell me I'm something worth saving

The story of me is a story of grace
Every chapter's a new list of all of the ways

You perfectly love me and all my imperfections
Still can't believe that it's true
How You perfectly love me and all my imperfections
And all my imperfections you'll use

All of my life I thought You had a list
Of all the things about me You'd change if You could
But here in Your presence my heart is convinced
There's no part of me that you can't use for good

Lord, You perfectly love me and all my imperfections
I'm finally believing it's true
How You perfectly love me and all my imperfections
And all my imperfections You'll use
All my imperfections You'll use
So, I give all my imperfections to You
