

Kingdom Things

Matthew West

The world turns and the battle rages
I look around and I find my faith is Anchored down in the king James pages
And it's not leaving

Heavy is the load I'm hauling
Tall are the walls not falling
But still is the voice that's calling
Look up and see 'em

Kingdom things
I lift my eyes and rest my mind
On kingdom things
Nothing on this earth could ever steal the sting
This world brings
Like kingdom things

I read the words in black and red and
Try to live this life I'm living
On earth as it is in heaven
Oh, but it's not easy

The enemy gets me surrounded
Gravity keeps my hope grounded
But not for long 'cause You reach down
And You hold me just like You hold all Your

Kingdom things
I lift my eyes and rest my mind
On kingdom things
Nothing on this earth could ever steal the sting
This world brings
Like kingdom things

Where crowns and grace and praise replace the suffering
And the pain is gone and the joy's beyond imagining
And You redeem
All Your Kingdom things

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

I am reminded in my trials
This world is not my home
And never will be
And I am reminded in my trials
That nothing here I own will fulfill me

Like kingdom things
I lift my eyes and rest my mind
On kingdom things
Nothing on this earth could ever steal the sting
This world brings
Like kingdom things

Where crowns and grace and praise replace the suffering

And You redeem
